The Head Mastership of this School is now vacant, owing to the death of the late Head Master, the Rev. F. Heppenall.

The Governors will now appoint a new Head Master.

The School has been reformed under a scheme of the Endowed Schools Commission, and is one of the first Grammar Schools.

The stipend of the Head Master is calculated on the scheme:

The Head Master shall receive a fixed stipend of £200 a year. He shall also receive head money, calculated on such a scale uniform or graduated as may be agreed upon between himself and the Governors, being at the rate of not less than £4 nor more than £5 a year for each scholar.

N.B.—The head money is for the present fixed at £4 per scholar in the School.

In addition to the former School, which has been thoroughly remodelled, new Class-rooms are ready for use. There has been an expenditure of £11,500 on the Head Master's house alone.

The Governors will from time to time fit the payments for Boarders, which, exclusive of tuition fee, cannot, under the scheme, exceed £50 yearly.

The Governors now sanction the full charge of £55 yearly.

DARNELL'S COPY-BOOKS,

After over a Quarter of a Century of public favour, are everywhere acknowledged as the Best for simplicity and thoroughness. They are adapted to the New Educational Code, and are used in nearly all the best Schools in Great Britain and the Colonies.

ADVANTAGES OF THE SYSTEM.

- I. It is the production of an experienced Schoolmaster.
- II. It gradually advances from the Simple Stroke to a superior Small Hand.
- III. The assistance given in the Primal Lesson is reduced as the learner progresses, until all guidance is safely withdrawn.
- IV. The number and variety of the copies secure attention, and prevent the pupils copying their own writing, as in books with single head-lines.
- V. The system insures the progress of the learner, and greatly lightens the labours of the teacher.

DARNELL'S LARGE POST COPY-BOOKS, 16 Nos., 6d. each.

The first ten of which have on every alternate line appropriate and carefully-written copies in Pencil-coloured ink, to be first written over and then imitated, the remaining numbers having Black Head-lines for imitation only, the whole gradually advancing from a simple stroke to a superior small hand.

Athenaeum.

"A novel of a high order of merit . . . one of the best fictions of the day."

Home News.

"An admirably written and well-conceived novel. Mr. Wingfield has exercised rare discrimination; he has not only read, but assimilated; not only drawn, but created."

"A new aspirant for literary fame has appeared on the scene and scored a decided success. Miss Coxon has written a charming novel. The plot, style, diction, and pathos have all a freshness and originality we rarely meet with. We cordially recommend 'Monsieur Love.'"

Vanity Fair.

"'No Surrender' deserves the very warmest commendation, and it is so thoroughly well written that the reader who puts it down may be perfectly satisfied with it, and yet not know how clever it is; but if it be compared with the numberless other attempts at novel writing the difference becomes clear enough."
